Dog rehoming agreement

A record of giving a dog to a new home between two private people, with what the new owner needs to know.

A sample form, not legal advice, and not a shelter's adoption contract. Laws differ by country and state: check what applies where you live.

Current owner and new owner

Current owner

Full name

Address

Phone

Email

New owner

Full name

Address

Phone

Email

The dog

Name

Breed or mix

Sex; spayed or neutered?

Date of birth (or estimate)

Color and markings

Microchip number

Pet passport or health certificate no.

Registration papers no. (if any)

Vaccinations, as recorded by a vet

Vaccine (as written in the record)	Date given	Vet or clinic

Papers and things handed over

- ☐ Vaccination record
- ☐ Pet passport or health certificate
- ☐ Food, bowls, bed and toys
- ☐ Vet and health records
- ☐ Microchip transfer form, signed
- ☐ Leash, collar or harness

Other

Health and behavior, as known to the current owner

Health: illnesses, injuries, medicines, allergies

Behavior: children, animals, time alone, fears

Pettify pettifyapp.com

Keep the history on your phone too: Pettify stores vaccinations, vet visits and documents, with the microchip number in the pet's profile.

A sample form, not legal advice and not an official document. It does not replace the microchip registry, a license or vet records.

App Store

Dog rehoming agreement

Dog's name _____

Daily routine

Food and daily amount _____

Feeding times _____

Walks: how often and how long _____

Vet clinic and phone _____

Fee (tick one)

☐ Free of charge

☐ Rehoming fee (amount and currency): _____

Handover

Date _____ Time _____ Place (address) _____

Optional: updates about the pet welcome at (the current owner's phone or email) _____

What we agree

1. The current owner gives the dog described above to the new owner, who becomes its owner at the handover.
2. The current owner confirms that the dog is theirs to give.
3. Health, behavior and routine are described above as far as the current owner knows them.
4. From the handover, the new owner is responsible for the dog's care, vet care and costs.

Other agreements

Anything else we agree on, in our own words

Signatures

Signed at (place) _____

Date _____

Current owner's signature _____

New owner's signature _____

Pettify pettifyapp.com

Keep the history on your phone too: Pettify stores vaccinations, vet visits and documents, with the microchip number in the pet's profile.

A sample form, not legal advice and not an official document. It does not replace the microchip registry, a license or vet records.

App Store