

Pet's name

Species and breed

Date of birth

Breeder or shelter

Visit date and time

Clinic and vet

☐ Book the first check-up

☐ Ask what to do after hours or in an emergency

☐ Write down your questions

☐ Ask the clinic whether to bring a stool sample

☐ Let your pet get used to the carrier or crate at home

☐ Papers from the breeder or shelter

☐ Fresh stool sample, under 24 hours old, in a closed container (if asked)

☐ Carrier, or a leash and collar☐ Vaccination and deworming records so far

☐ The food your pet eats now: name, how much, how often

☐ This checklist with your questions

☐ Which vaccines your pet needs, and when

☐ Spaying or neutering: timing, benefits, risks

☐ Microchip and keeping its registration current

☐ Grooming and nail trims☐ Litter box setup (kittens)☐ Pet insurance or a wellness plan☐ Preventing worms, fleas, ticks and heartworm

☐ Food: what, how much, how often

☐ Teeth and dental care at home

☐ Socialization, training, puppy classes☐ Breed-related conditions to watch for☐ When to come back next

My questions for the vet

Pettify pettifyapp.com

Keep it on your phone too: Pettify records each vet visit with the medicines prescribed at it and makes a PDF report for the vet.

General checklist based on AAHA, Feline VMA, AKC and Fear Free advice. Not medical advice: vaccines, treatments and doses are your vet's call.

App Store

First vet visit checklist

Pet's name _____

At the visit: write down

Weight

Vaccines given today

Tests done and results

Microchip number

Deworming or parasite treatment given

Other findings or treatments

Medicines prescribed (copy from the label)

Medicine	Dose (as prescribed)	How often	Until

What the vet said: answers to my questions, instructions for home

Next dates

Next visit

Next parasite treatment due

Next vaccination due

Clinic phone

Notes

