

Pet resume

Page 1 of 2

For a landlord or property manager: who your pet is, how they live with you, and who can vouch for them. Attach the vaccination record or a letter from your vet.

About the pet

Photo

Print or glue a clear, recent photo here

Pet's name

Species and breed

Age or date of birth

Weight (kg)

Sex, spayed or neutered

Color and markings

Microchip number

Has lived with me since

Health and care

Vaccinations up to date as of (date)

Proof attached (vaccination record, vet letter)

Vet clinic

Vet clinic phone

Training and behavior

House-trained, crate-trained, classes

Certificates and courses completed

With people and children

With other dogs and cats

Home alone: how long, and where

Barking and other noise

References

Name	Relationship (landlord, vet, trainer)	Phone or email

Owner

Owner's name

Phone

Email

Renters insurance: company, policy

In a few words

Personality, favorite things, daily routine, and how we met

 Pettify pettifyapp.com

Keep the records on your phone too: Pettify stores vaccinations and vet visits and exports a PDF report you can share from the app.

Information given by the owner and the referee. It does not replace vaccination certificates or other documents issued by a veterinarian.

App Store

Pet reference letter

Page 2 of 2

Pet's name _____

Optional. Ask a previous landlord, your vet, a trainer or a neighbor to fill in and sign this page, then attach it to your rental application.

About you

Your name _____

How you know the owner (landlord, vet, trainer, neighbor) _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Address where the pet lived (landlords) _____

Known the pet since _____

Your reference

To (landlord or property manager) _____

How I know this pet and its owner

How the pet behaves at home, with people and with other animals

Care of the home: any damage, noise or complaints

Signature _____

Date _____

 Pettify pettifyapp.com

Keep the records on your phone too: Pettify stores vaccinations and vet visits and exports a PDF report you can share from the app.

Information given by the owner and the referee. It does not replace vaccination certificates or other documents issued by a veterinarian.

App Store